

You shall enquire.

What infamous and idle persons pretending themselves to be Informers upon penall lawes & statutes have thereupon troubled or terrified any of the Quenes subiectes by colour of any plaintes, bills, actions or informations untrue-ly imagined: or by threatening of any of the Quenes subiectes, with any proces or information obtained or exhibited or pretended to be obtained or exhibited, since the first of January in the 13. yeare of the Quenes raigne.

2. Item, what summes of money, gifts, rewardes, fees, annuities, profits or commodities any such Informers have had, taken, or receiued by colour or means of any such lawes, proces or threatening since the sayd first of January.

3. Of what persons, where, by what colour, and for what cause or matter, any of them have so had, taken or receiued, or couenanted to have take, or receive, since the sayd first day of January.

4. What and how many writtes and proceses any such persons have deliuered to any person for any apparaunce to be made in any of the Quenes Courtes of Recorde, or for any cause what soeuer since the sayd day.

5. What extorsions, oppressions or vexations have bene done to any of the Quenes subiectes by the relation, procurement or means of any such infamous and idle persons by colour of the premises, though such euill persons themselves did not intermedle in any such suites.

6. What sayned colorable and vniue rsall concordes, compositions and small agreements and discharges have bene had or made by any such persons with any of the Quenes subiectes for any the causes abovesayd.

7. Also of the certaintie of the factes and tymes of all such oppressions, vexations, extorsions and other enormities.

8. Also of all other Articles or matters the sayd misdeemeanours and offences be any with concerning.

9. Also of the names surnames, names, conuersations and demeane, of such infamous and idle troublesome persons, and of their abettors and procurers.

God saue the Queene.